Abdurahman Sharif
Coordinator

Abdurahman Sharif is a graduate in Languages from the University of Sorbonne in France and holds a Master's Degree in Development Studies from the University of Pavia (Italy). He lived for many years in Italy where he worked for the International NGO CISP – Sviluppo dei Popoli, of which he is also an Associate Member, and has been involved in many awareness raising activities with the Somali Diaspora.

He also co-founded and held the post of Vice-President of a local charity called El Vagon Libre whose scope was to promote cultural diversity in the city of Rome. Abdurahman speaks English, French, Italian, Spanish, Arabic and Somali. In May 2009, he was appointed as a Coordinator for the Muslim Charities Forum.
