Dr Nabeel Siddiq Al Ramadhani
(Human Relief Foundation)
Trustee

Nabeel Al-Ramadhani joined Human Relief Foundation (HRF) as Director in 1994. HRF is an international humanitarian, development NGO, whose primary purpose was to work with the victims of the first gulf war in Iraq. During the last 14 years, Nabeel has led HRF's response to humanitarian crises in Iraq, Palestine, Afghanistan, Kashmir, Sudan, Ethiopia, Somalia, Pakistan, India and Bangladesh. He has strengthened HRF by pushing for its scale up of development work.

Previously a lecturer at the University of Bradford, Nabeel has a PhD in structural engineering, and is the chairman for various projects including Claremont Community Centre.

Nabeel is married and has two sons and five daughters.
