Mr Jehangir Malik
(Islamic Relief UK)
Trustee

Married with 3 children: 2 daughters & 1 son. Originally from Birmingham with parents migrating to the UK in 1960's from Azad Jammu Kashmir.

Jehangir has been an active member of the community since the early days of University, where whilst he was studying for his law degree he was the President of the Islamic Society. He also was an active member of the Young Muslims UK.

He was introduced to Islamic Relief through the founder Dr Hany el Banna, where he is proud of the fact that his first responsibility was a volunteer steward at the famous Islamic Relief Games held at the NEC in Birmingham in 1991.

He later joined Islamic Relief as a Fundraising Coordinator in Bradford, Birmingham and was then offered a posting to initiate IR USA operation. He became the Development Director in IR USA until 2001, where he helped develop the operation into one of the major IR funding Offices for Islamic Relief's Projects, as well as working with the grass roots communities focusing on developing Youth Leadership.

In 2002 he moved to Afghanistan as a Deputy Country Director in managing one of the largest Humanitarian Aid Programs for Islamic Relief Worldwide. Returned to UK as a Fundraising & Marketing Manager and is currently the UK Director of Islamic Relief UK based in London.
